Bachelor (Hons), Physical Education, Sports Science and Recreation Management, Loughborough University, England

Graduate Diploma of Education (TAFE Curriculum and Adult Education), University of Queensland, Australia

Institute of Cost and Management Accountants, years 1 -3

Leo is a lecturer in Sports Management at Southbank Institute of Technology, Brisbane. He has held this position since 1997. His specialty subjects are Strategic Planning, Law, Human Resource Management and Information Technology.

Prior to his teaching post, Leo worked as a sports administrator over a 15-year period in positions such as Coaching Development Officer, National Coaching Director, State Administration Officer and Executive Director. His working experience also includes accountancy, an occupation in which he has 15 years experience in a variety of management positions.

Since taking up a teaching position Leo has continued to work with many sporting clubs and associations in Queensland in sports such as Baseball, Cricket, Association Football (Soccer), Rugby League, Australian Rules Football, Canoeing, Orienteering in capacities as President, Treasurer, Junior Development Coordinator, and Committee Member.

Leo began the website LEOISAAC.COM to assist his students. It continues to grow and now serves a wider community need with over 3,000 pages of information and learning activities.

Between the ages of 18 and 31, Leo pursued and achieved his dream of representing his country in sport. Although primarily a sprinter in his youth, Leo turned to the sport of Weightlifting (Snatch and Clean & Jerk variety) at the age of 18.

At 25 years of age Leo represented Great Britain at the 1980 Moscow Olympiad where he placed 14th in the 67.5Kg category. His best performances were at the 1979 and 1985 World Championships where he placed 10th and 9th respectively.

Nowadays Leo passionately follows the sport of Football (soccer) due his son's involvement. The issues encountered by administrators of soccer clubs are a rich source of ideas for teaching students and developing resources for this website.

Leo's ambition is to develop the website LEOISAAC.COM to a level where it will achieve worldwide recognition as a resource for community sport and recreation organisations.

Leo's is always interested in assisting sporting organisations deal with problems and issues, and working with sports administrators, voluntary and paid, to find solutions. He is available for consulting work.
